

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear abuse of the public airwaves, which they are licensed, by the people, to use free of charge. They are obligated by law to serve the public interest. This latest in a string of worrisome broadcast actions (such a blatant partisan display of political influence should be accompanied by a disclaimer..This ad paid for by Sinclair friends of Bush..) show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Please consider toughening the licensing renewal review process. Thank you.
